Spot the Difference

Captain Marshall swears by his trusty compass to help him travel around the World. However, there's something not quite right about the second compass. Spot the 9 differences!

Match the Drawings

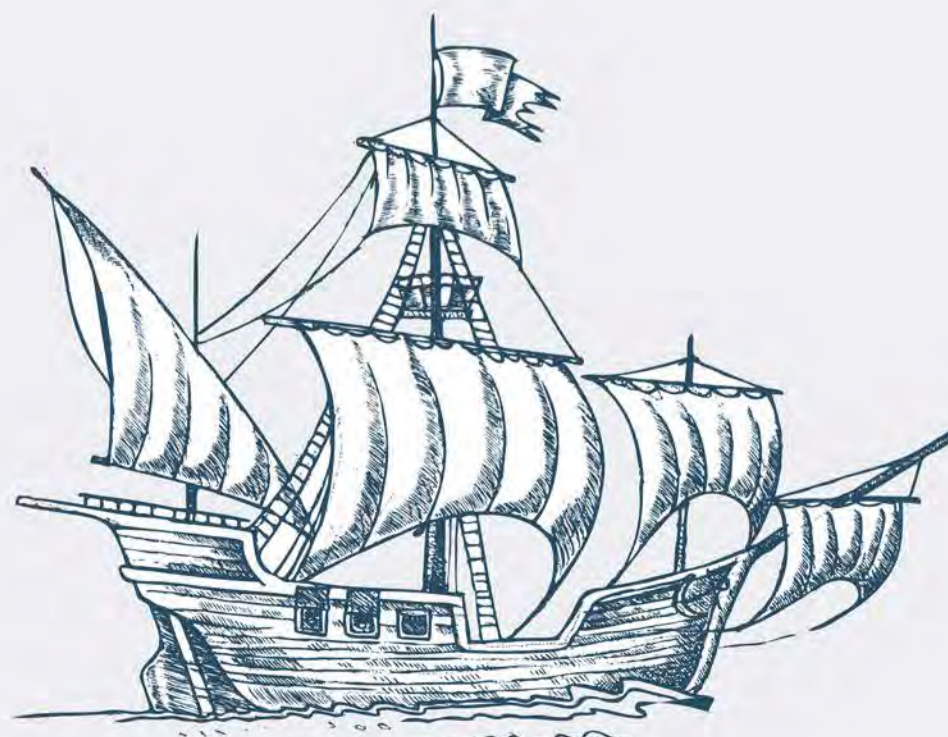

Captain Marshall is looking to begin another endeavour. Can you help him match the countries with their flags?

Did you Know?

Oceans cover most of the Earth's surface, but did you know that we've only discovered 10% of them?

Although we've found thousands of species, experts think that there could be at least 25 million more that are just waiting there in that 90% of the oceans that we haven't even set foot in, or should we say 'dived in'!

Colouring Time

Ships are Captain Marshall's favourite method of travel! Help Captain Marshall to brighten up his own ship with some colour!
